

NITU

Porcelain

by Felicithas Arndt

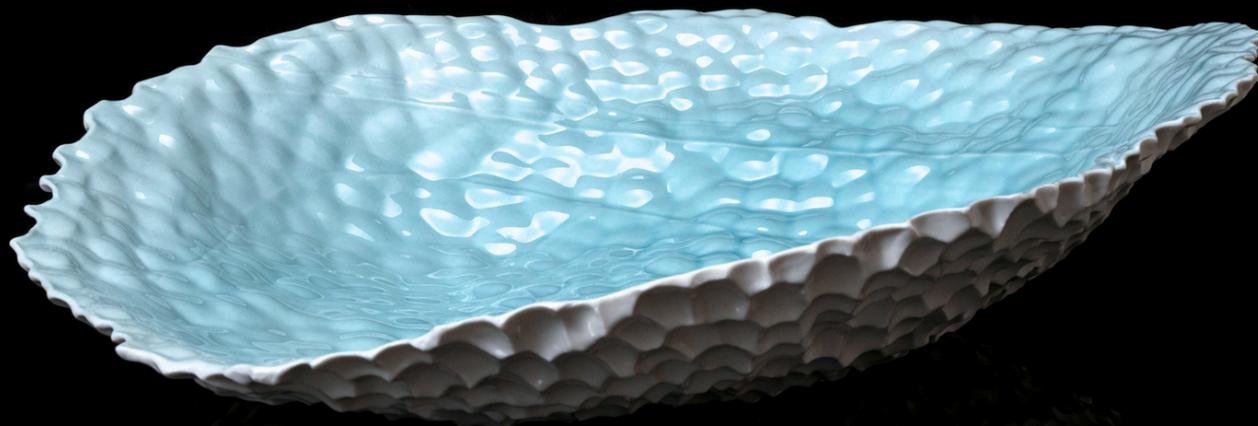

Nitu is a brand which contains several series of tableware inspired by Nature.

"The structures and forms of mushrooms, lichens, corals, shells and plants serve as inspiration for my objects made of ceramics or porcelain. It is particularly important to me that each individual piece is experienced not only through form but also haptically."

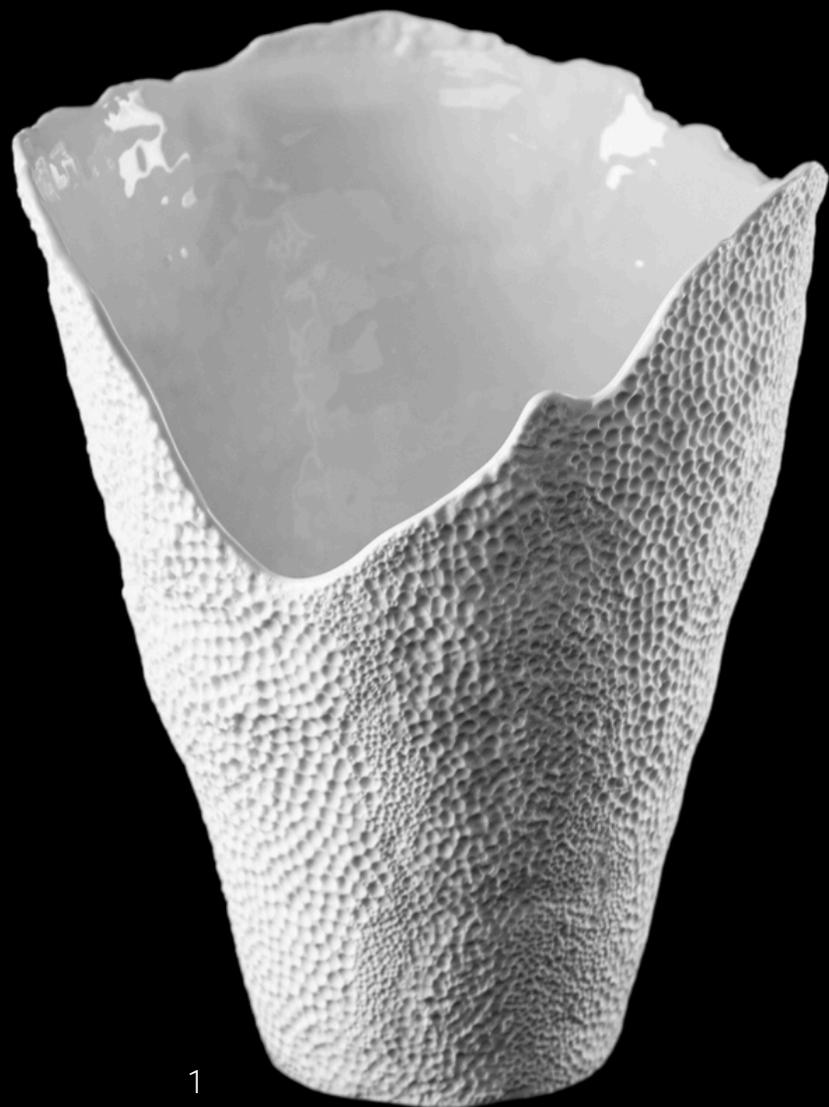

The porcelain edition has been selected as Ambiente Trends 23+.

The Akoya Dining Edition by NITU Porcelain is a luxurious tableware design for highly exclusive gourmet restaurants.

The bowls and plates are freely hand-formed and structured with a fine surface relief. They are reminiscent of the sea, of the multi-faceted coral structures and shells, reminding us that everything we take comes from nature.
